

Topical Applications

Diaper rash products, sunscreen repellent, baby powder, body crème are considered "Basic Care Products" not nonprescription medications. They are referred to as "Topical Applications" because they are applied on the child's skin and not taken internally. An individual does not need to have taken "Medication Administration" training to apply basic care/topical products on a child.

Topical Applications: _____ is being applied daily on

Parent signature

Date